PSALM READING (Psalm 97)

Joni Lynch, Pam Blassingame

¹ The Lord is King! Tell the earth to celebrate and all islands to shout. ² Dark clouds surround him, and his throne is supported by justice and fairness. ³ Fire leaps from his throne, destroying his enemies, ⁴ and his lightning is so bright that the earth sees it and trembles. ⁵ Mountains melt away like wax in the presence of the Lord of all the earth. ⁶ The heavens announce, "The Lord brings justice!" Everyone sees God's glory. ⁷ Those who brag about the useless idols they worship are terribly ashamed, and all the false gods bow down to the Lord. ⁸ When the people of Zion and of the towns of Judah hear that God brings justice, they will celebrate. ⁹ The Lord rules the whole earth, and he is more glorious than all the false gods. ¹⁰ Love the Lord and hate evil! God protects his loyal people and rescues them from violence. ¹¹ If you obey and do right, a light will show you the way and fill you with happiness. ¹² You are the Lord's people! So celebrate and praise the only God.

The Word of God for the People of God.

Thanks be to God!

NEW TESTAMENT READING (Acts 16:16-34)

Joni Lynch, Pam Blassingame

¹⁶ One day as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a female slave who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling.

¹⁷ While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." ¹⁸ She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

¹⁹ But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. ²⁰ When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, “These men, these Jews, are disturbing our city ²¹ and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us, being Romans, to adopt or observe.” ²² The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. ²³ After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. ²⁴ Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks. ²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was an earthquake so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were unfastened. ²⁷ When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul shouted in a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.” ²⁹ The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them outside and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ³¹ They answered, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.” ³² They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³ At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. ³⁴ He brought them up into the house and set food before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.
