Do what you do so well: get me out of this mess and up on my feet.

Put your ear to the ground and listen, give me space for salvation.

Be a guest room where I can retreat; you said your door was always open!

WORDS OF SABBATH AND REST

Andy McCullough, Cindy McBrayer

The Peace of Wild Things

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things
who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

* GOSPEL READING

Andy McCullough, Cindy McBrayer

<sup>10</sup>Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. <sup>11</sup>And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. <sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are set free from your ailment.” <sup>13</sup>When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. <sup>14</sup>But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, “There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured and not on the Sabbath day.” <sup>15</sup>But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it to water? <sup>16</sup>And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom The Adversary bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?” <sup>17</sup>When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame, and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things being done by him.

Go With God

Go with God into the world.
There may be someone
Who will find the Lord through you.
What you say and what you do,
Can show the world that our Savior lives.
We're His heart, and we're His hands,
And in His name,
Let us go forth to share His love.
As we go into the world,
May we be called and may we all go with God.
Go with God.

1. By confessing their faith in Jesus Christ and being baptized.
2. By transferring their membership from another Christian church.

If you are ready to make one of these decisions, please come forward during the hymn of response and share that decision with the pastor. If you wish to visit with a pastor about becoming a Christian, joining Second Baptist Church, or any other spiritual decision, pastors will be available in the foyer following the worship service or in the church office during the week.
